

Wonders On Wednesday

Themes - Fall 2014

SEPTEMBER 3: MAD SCIENCE 6:00 - 7:30 PM

This is our kick-off dinner. After a delicious dinner and root beer floats for dessert, there will be fun science activities for the children. Our evening will conclude at 7:30 pm with a spectacular experiment on the lawn!!

SEPTEMBER 10: SLICE OF HEAVEN

We'll be having a heavenly pizza dinner and explore some heavenly scripture: "There are many rooms in my Father's house, and I am going to prepare a room for you" John 14: 2. What would your room in heaven look like? Can we experience heaven on Earth?

SEPTEMBER 17: BEAR/BARE NECESSITIES AND BRING -A-FRIEND

Friends are a necessity! Tonight we will be thinking about what is really necessary. Everyone will get a bear to take home to care for. Bring new men's socks for April Showers. We will help provide one necessity for the homeless of San Leandro.

SEPTEMBER 24: WILD, WILD WEST

Wear your dancing boots and be prepared to enjoy some chuck wagon chow. We'll be doing some line dancing with a western beat! We might even have some horse races.

OCTOBER 1: MOSES IN THE DESERT

God provided manna, quail and water for Moses and the Israelites in the desert; our WOW cook team will provide a delicious dinner for us, desert food for dessert? We will be doing some water activities but hopefully won't get wet.

OCTOBER 8: TREASURE HUNT

What treasures will we find on our hunt? We might even find some treasures at dinner. We will need a map and some clues so wear your thinking caps! There might be some puzzles to solve to lead us to our treasure.

OCTOBER 15: JONAH AND THE BIG FISH

Sharks and Minnows seem like a good game for tonight. The book of Jonah tells an amazing story of God's love and forgiveness. Jonah and the people of Nineveh are children of God just like us.

WOW Themes Fall 2014 (continued)

OCTOBER 22: DAVID AND GOLIATH

Goliath was large in body and David was large in faith. We all know who won. David used stones to defeat Goliath. We will practice our sling skills with something a little softer and safer.

OCTOBER 29: HALLOWEEN PARTY - FIVE O'CLOCK START TIME

Wear your costumes! Remember to be creative and leave the weapons and fake blood at home. We have a different schedule tonight because of the party. Every one comes at 5 for a delicious and nutritious dinner. Then we party!!

NOVEMBER 5: PAJAMA NIGHT

Come dressed for bed with your robe, slippers and teddy. We will have breakfast for dinner and share some favorite bedtime stories.

NOVEMBER 12: WORLD FOOD DAY

This year's theme for World Food day was "Family Farming: Feeding the world, caring for the earth". So tonight we will be thinking about feeding the world. Bring canned food to share with the Davis Street Ministry.

NOVEMBER 19: PILGRIM PARTY

We will have a traditional Thanksgiving dinner as we celebrate the early European settlers in the Americas and the generosity of the native peoples. Tonight we will make Thanksgiving cards to send to our shut-ins.

NOVEMBER 26: NO MEETING

Thanksgiving Break

DECEMBER 3: ADVENT STAR SEARCH

We have a special guest, Kevin Cox, coming tonight to guide us in some star searching. Hopefully we will have a clear night so we view our own winter stars.

Plan to come to the family Advent celebration Saturday, December 6th.

DECEMBER 10: SHEPHERDS WATCH

Tonight is our final night for this semester. We will have shepherd's pie for dinner and think about the shepherds' long night, as they were the first visitors to the newborn Christ. Read Luke 2: 8-20.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 14: CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PLAY at 11:00 AM

Mark your calendars now! We'll be presenting our Christmas play at 11 AM in the Fellowship Hall on Sunday, December 14th. It will be a special time – invite your family and friends!
